A Hopeful Conversation on Words, Challenges & Morals Regarding Dementia

This is the YouTube video we did last week for Alzheimer's Speaks, the world's leading radio program and YouTube platform for deeply forgetful people and their caregivers. This venue was recognized by Oprah as a Health Hero program, and by Dr. Oz as the "#1 Influencer Online for Alzheimer's." It goes on for a while, but is hopefully valuable for those interested. This is an area I have worked in for about 25 years now, shockingly, and am returning to it more and more.

Thanks and have a great summer.
