Young People Against Religious Violence

Please enjoy our United Nations conference that actually filled the big headquarters conference room on World Youth Day, Friday August 12. Thanks to the UN for great webcasting. To our knowledge, this has now been viewed by up to 80 million individuals across the Middle East, South America, and of course, my hometown Cleveland, from which I have been on loan to my native New York for a while now.

Thanks so much.
